

"The roots of war and violence go deep, into the earth herself. As an indigenous woman, I wish to simply state that until we make peace with earth, there will be no peace in the human community."

– Ingrid Washinawatok El-Issa

PLEASE JOIN US IN HONORING
Ingrid Washinawatok El-Issa
Opetaw-Metaehmoh – Flying Eagle Woman
1957-1999

And to celebrate the Sixth Session of the United Nation's Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues

777 United Nations Plaza – 2nd Floor
(44th Street & 1st Avenue)

Friday, May 18, 2007 at 6:30 PM

Featuring

- Rigoberta Menchú Tum - Nobel Peace Prize Laureate

With

- Tonya Gonnella Frichner – Founder and President, American Indian Law Alliance
- Esmeralda Brown – Member of the Board, Flying Eagle Woman Fund

And Special Guest
Bill Means

Performances by

- Silvercloud Singers • Billie Jean Young • Ulali •

Sponsored by:

Flying Eagle Woman Fund

Secretariat of the Permanent
Forum on Indigenous Issues,
United Nations

American Indian
Community House

For further information please contact:

Ali El-Issa at ali@flyingeaglewomanfund.org or Fran Grumbly at fran@flyingeaglewomanfund.org